The Department of Civil Engineering in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching the following undergraduate course in the 2019-20 session.

Qualifications:
Minimum of one year’s study at the level of MASc (or equivalent research or industry design experience). Previous educational background and/or experience must be suited to teaching the course described below. Candidates must have excellent communication and presentation skills, as well as be capable of working as a member of a teaching team. Registration as a Professional Engineer, or eligibility to acquire registration in Canada, is an essential qualification. Prior teaching experience in project based engineering courses and lecture-based engineering courses would be an asset. Open to Teaching Fellows or Term Adjuncts.

Teaching Requirement:

CIVL 200 Professional Skills I F | K 2.5

Starting the very first day of the term, this week-long, intensive short-course serves as a kickoff to Civil Engineering at Queen’s. Students will be engaged in a design challenge where they are to conceive, design, implement and operate a system to achieve some specified function bounded by constraints. Focus will be placed on development of decision making, team building and engineering design skills.

Academic Units:
Mathematics 0
Natural Sciences 0
Complementary Studies 8
Engineering Science 0
Engineering Design 20

The above advertised course will be taught on campus with a one-day competition at the Department’s Kennedy Field Station. Enrolment is expected to be around 90 students in CIVL 200. The successful applicant will have 100 percent responsibility for this course and will supervise a team of teaching assistants. Fall term classes begin September 5, 2019 and end November 29, 2019 while the examination period ends on December 19, 2019. CIVL 200 is instructed over the first complete week of the fall session only. There will be reports over the course of the term which will require your attention as well. Instructors will be responsible for tracking CEAB indicators. Guidance on this process will be provided.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Term Adjuncts at Queen’s University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen’s University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at: http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collectiveagreement.

Teaching Fellows at Queen’s University are governed by the Collective Agreement for Teaching Assistants and Teaching Fellows between PSAC Local 901 and Queen’s University. Remuneration will be in accordance with the Collective Agreement, and appointments are subject to funding or enrolment criteria. http://queensu.ca/facultyrelations/teaching-assistants-and-fellows/collective-agreement.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens/permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada; OR, I am not a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact: Susan Palo at susan.palo@queensu.ca; 613-533-2125.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching experience, the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration. Applications can be submitted to the Civil Engineering Appointments Committee at the address below, or by e-mail to Susan Palo, susan.palo@queensu.ca.

Applications should arrive no later than June 14, 2019.
