The above advertised course will be taught on campus. Enrolment is expected to be around 100 students in CIVL 230. The successful applicant will have 100 percent responsibility for this course and will supervise a team of teaching assistants. Fall term classes begin September 7, 2021 and end December 3, 2021 while the examination period ends on December 22, 2021. Instructors will be responsible for tracking CEAB indicators. Guidance on this process will be provided.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Term Adjuncts at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens/permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada; OR, I am not a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact: Sandra Martin at sandra.martin@queensu.ca; 613-533-6000 ext. 74226.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching experience, the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration. Applications can be submitted to the Civil Engineering Appointments Committee at the address below, or by e-mail to Sandra Martin, sandra.martin@queensu.ca.

Applications should arrive no later than June 20, 2021.
